

Casey Walsh
Ivy Birchall
Yusef Wray

Walkability: (Taken from Walkscore)

- 1) Morrisania: 94
- 2) Mott Haven: 96
- 3) Port Morris: 84
- 4) Harlem: 98
- 5) Sunnyside: 69

Things to do rankings:

- 1) Harlem, has the most museums, music, cultural centers, etc. It's a well known area that attracts many tourists.
- 2) (tie)Port Morris, more suburban, with restaurants, parks, and coffee shops. Tied with Mott Haven because they're so close.
- 3) (tie)Mott Haven, urban residential, very similar to Port Morris
- 4) (tie)Sunnyside, more urban but mostly residential. Has stores, parks, coffee shops, etc. Very similar neighborhood to Morrisiana as a residential neighborhood.
- 5) (tie)Morrisania, mostly resident urban with restaurants and parks. Very similar neighborhood to Sunnyside.

Safety rankings: (Taken from Niche)

- 1) Sunnyside (tie)
- 2) Morrisiana (tie)
- 3) Port Morris
- 4) Mott Haven (tie)
- 5) Harlem (tie)

Affordability: (Taken from Niche)

- 1) Mott Haven- MHV (median home value) $62,728
- 2) Port Morris- MHV $62, 728
- 3) Morrisiana- MHV $143,609
- 4) Harlem- MHV $348,669
- 5) Sunnyside- MHV $350,790

Overall, our ranking system doesn't match well with the walkscore. However, the criteria we used to rank our neighborhoods are conflicting rankings themselves. Specifically, the walkscore is similar to our "things to do" rankings, , but it does not mirror our other categories as well.